And if two-thirds of the ballots be in the affirmative, such application shall be made. At the next regular meeting after the receipt of permission from the Grand Lodge to reinstate the brother, a ballot shall be taken on the application for reinstatement; and if not more than two black balls appear against him, the brother shall be reinstated.

SEC. 13.—Withdrawing Application.—An application for membership may be withdrawn, without the permission of the Lodge, before the report of the committee thereon is read to the Lodge, but not afterward, either with or without such permission.

legally accrued against him up to the date of payment; nor then, until the expiration of such time thereafter, as may also by said By-Laws be provided as a penalty. The Lodge shall not refuse to receive in full, or in part, the dues of a member prior to his suspension, and no member shall be suspended for non-payment of dues, unless at the time of his suspension, he shall be indebted to the Lodge for one year's dues; but, when a member shall be liable to suspension by being indebted to the Lodge for dues for the space of one year, he shall be notified by the Secretary, under seal of the Lodge, at least four weeks previous to action being taken, of his indebtedness and the pendency of such action, and the Secretary shall, on the expiration of the notice, and the member being still indebted for one year's dues, report the same to the Noble Grand in open Lodge; and, unless action be deferred, a ball ballot shall be taken upon the question: "Shall Bro. . . . . be excused from suspension?" and a record thereof shall be made upon the minutes. If a majority of the ballots be white or favorable, the brother shall be declared excused, otherwise he shall be declared suspended. The ballot shall not be reconsidered, but the indebtedness still existing, a new notice can be given at any time, and on its expiration, a new ballot taken, both under the same formality as the first.

SEC. 3.—Disabled while Indebted to the Lodge.—A member of this Lodge who is disqualified for pecuniary benefits by reason of non-payment of dues, cannot, by payment of dues after disability has commenced, become entitled to weekly benefits for that disability, nor to the payment of funeral expenses, or funeral benefit, in case of death resulting therefrom.

ARTICLE X.

SECTION 1.—Weekly Benefits.—This Lodge shall pay a weekly benefit to every member who is not disqualified from receiving the same by the General Laws of the Order, this Constitution, or the By-Laws; and who shall be disabled by sickness or bodily injury, not the result of his own vice or immorality, from following his usual occupation, or otherwise earning a livelihood for himself, during the continuance of the disability, in such amount as may be fixed in the By-Laws; provided, that it shall not be less than two dollars during the first year of disability, nor less than one dollar thereafter. SEC. 2.—Funeral Expenses.—In case of the death of a member of this Lodge, qualified as provided in Sec. 1 of this article, there shall be paid from the funds of the Lodge such a sum, not less than $30.00, as may be specified in the By-Laws, which shall be used for defraying the funeral expenses; or, if said expenses shall be paid by any relative or friend of the deceased, then the said amount shall be paid to such relative or friend.

ARTICLE XI.

CARDS.

SECTION 1.—Visiting Cards.—Any member of this Lodge, on making application for a Visiting Card, either personally or in writing, if no legal disqualification then exists, shall be entitled to the same by general consent, or a majority vote, upon paying his dues to the end of the time for which it is granted, including such fee for the card as may be specified by the By-Laws. Visiting Cards may be granted during the recess of the Lodge by the Noble Grand and Secretary, upon receipt of a written application therefor and the payment of all dues and the fee as aforesaid; such action to be reported to the Lodge at its next regular session, so that it shall appear on the records.

SEC. 2.—Withdrawal Cards.—Any member of this Lodge desiring a withdrawal card, shall make application therefor, either personally or in writing; and if free from all charges, and not indebted to the Lodge, the Lodge shall, at the same or the next regular meeting after such card is applied for, proceed to vote on the application by ball ballot; and if a majority of the ballots be favorable, or white, the card shall be granted.

The vote granting a withdrawal card shall neither be reconsidered nor rescinded.

SEC. 3.—Reinstatement for Withdrawal Card.—A member of this Lodge who has been suspended for non-payment of dues, and who shall make application for reinstatement and a withdrawal card, may be reinstated and granted a final card at any time within five years from the date of suspension, upon the payment of one year's dues, and the usual price of the card. Should the Lodge refuse to reinstate the applicant, he shall be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall, upon proper application, grant a dismissal certificate upon the receipt of one dollar.

SEC. 4.— Dismissal Certificates.—A member of this Lodge suspended for non-payment of dues, after five years suspension, wishing to join a Lodge in this jurisdiction, shall be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall grant, upon proper application, a dismissal certificate upon the receipt of one dollar.

A member of this Lodge who may be suspended for non-payment of dues, and desires to regain membership in another jurisdiction, shall be entitled to receive and the Lodge shall, upon proper application, grant a dismissal certificate upon the receipt of one dollar.

Dismissal certificates may be received on application for membership in any Lodge excepting that granting the same; but the privilege of visiting a Lodge on a dismissal certificate is hereby denied.

ARTICLE XII.

PENALTIES AND TRIAL.

SECTION 1.— Any member who shall violate any of the principles of the Order, or offend against these Articles or the By-Laws, shall be subject to be fined, reprimanded, suspended, or expelled, as the By-Laws may direct, or the Lodge determine. But no member shall be liable for more than one of the penalties named in this Section.

SEC. 2.— Every member shall be entitled to a fair trial for any offence involving either of the penalties named in Section 1 of this article; but shall not be put on trial unless charges, duly specifying his offence, be submitted to the Lodge, in writing, by one or more brothers of the Order.

SEC. 3.—When charges have been preferred against a brother in proper manner, they shall be referred to a special committee of five members, who shall, if possible, be chosen from among the peers of the implicated brother; and they shall, with as little delay as the case will admit, summon the parties, and examine the matter in question. Should the committee be satisfied that the charge is sustained, they shall, with their report, submit a motion to the Lodge for the infliction of such penalty as, in their judgment, the offence demands; and if not involving suspension or expulsion, the adoption of the report shall be final, unless an appeal be taken.

SEC. 4.—When a motion for the suspension or expulsion of a brother shall have been submitted in due form, it shall be the special order of business for the second regular session thereafter; and the accused shall be summoned to be in attendance at the Lodge on the time when it may have been determined to consider the question; at which time, whether the implicated brother be present or not, the Lodge may proceed to consider and determine it. Two-thirds of the members present voting in favor of the motion by ball ballot, it shall be carried; and the Lodge shall be fully competent, while such motion is under consideration, to vary the penalty from the original motion.

SEC. 5.—When the decision of a committee appointed under Section 3 shall not be satisfactory to all parties, either of those interested shall have the privilege of appeal to the Lodge; and, at the time appointed for trying the appeal, the committee shall present to the Lodge, in writing, the grounds on which their decision was founded, and the parties shall have the privilege of being heard before the Lodge; and the Lodge shall determine the correctness of the decision of the committee by a majority of the votes present, and any brother shall be entitled to appeal from the decision of the Lodge against him in accordance with the provisions of Article XIII., provided informality or want of fairness be shown on the former trial; and, on command of the Grand Lodge, the brother may be tried anew for the same offence.

Refusing or neglecting to comply with the requirements of this section before the 20th of January and July of each year, will subject the Lodge to a fine of five dollars.

SECTION 2.—Forfeiture of Charter.—Should this Lodge fail to make its returns, as required by Section 1 of this article, for twelve months, it shall thereby forfeit its charter and become extinct; and it shall become the duty of the last installed officers to trans-

Be it enacted etc., as follows:

Section 1.—Any Subordinate Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, duly chartered by and under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Massachusetts, may take, hold and convey real and personal estate in the name of such Subordinate Lodge as a voluntary association, under such rules and regulations as may be framed and prescribed therefor by said Grand Lodge.

BUNKER HILL LODGE, No. 14, I. O. O. F., under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, and subject to the Laws, uses and purposes of the Order, and the rules and regulations of said

Grand Lodge; to it said Bunker Hill Lodge, and its successors and assigns, to its and their use and behoof forever.

SEC. 3.—Conveyance.—When a proposal to sell, mortgage, or lease for more than one year any real or mixed property belonging to this Lodge shall have been submitted, written or printed notice substantially stating the nature of the proposed action shall be mailed or delivered to each member of the Lodge seven days at least before the meeting at which action is to be taken, and at such meeting two-thirds of the members present voting in the affirmative shall be necessary before the Lodge can sell, mortgage, or lease its property. A conveyance may then be made in the name of the Lodge, and the proper instrument shall be executed by the Noble Grand, Vice Grand, and Secretary, who shall affix the seal thereto.

SEC. 4.—Investment of Funds.—A proposal to deposit or withdraw moneys, to buy, sell, transfer, or exchange stocks, bonds, or other personal property, shall require the affirmative votes of two-thirds of the members present at a regular session, but the Lodge may, by such vote, empower the Trustees to make investments, and to exchange or transfer the same, when public record or signatures of officers is not required, as in their judgment will be for the best interests of the Lodge.

SEC. 5.—Funds and property not to be divided.—The funds, property and income of this Lodge, having been raised for the purpose of relieving sick and distressed brethren, and other charitable uses in the Order, are not to be divided in any manner among the

Should the Lodge fail, from any cause, to continue as a working body and yield up its charter, the money and property of whatever kind, of which it may be possessed, and belonging thereto, must be surrendered and paid over to the Grand Lodge, to be held in trust, and applied only to the objects for which they were collected, as provided by the laws of the Order.

The provisions of this Section shall not be so construed as to prohibit the appropriation of moneys received from other than the usual and legitimate revenues of the Lodge, provided such moneys have not been previously paid into the treasury as Lodge funds, or of moneys legally placed in the contingent fund, for any of the purposes named or implied herein.

SEC. 7.—Penalty.—Members participating in the division or misappropriation of funds or property prohibited by the foregoing Sections, shall be expelled, and shall not be allowed to again unite with the Order, without first making due reparation therefor.

to the meaning of any part of these Articles, they shall be determined by the Grand Lodge.

Provided that alterations or amendments, necessary to correct non-conformity to the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, may be made at any regular session of the Grand Lodge, without previous notice. When any amendment is under consideration, it shall be in order to amend such proposed amendment in any manner the Grand Lodge may determine.

SEC. 3.—By-Laws.—This Lodge shall stand fully invested with power to adopt such By-Laws, resolutions, and rules of order, from time to time, as may be deemed expedient, provided they do not in any wise conflict with any part of these Articles, the Constitution and By-Laws of the Grand Lodge, or the principles of the Order. But no By-Law or amendment thereto shall be adopted unless the same has been submitted to the Lodge, in writing, at a regular meeting previous to action being taken, and two-thirds of the members present shall have voted in favor of the same. It shall be lawful, when a proposed amendment to the By-Laws has been regularly submitted, to amend the same, while under consideration, in any manner the Lodge may determine, not in violation of this Constitution or the Laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

SEC. 4.—Approval of By-Laws.— On the adoption of any By-Law, or amendment to a By-Law; also, before the issue of any new edition of the full code, whether amended or not, two copies, each authenticated by the seal of the Lodge, and attested by the Secretary, shall be forwarded to the Grand Secretary for examination by the Committee on Laws, and shall not be in force unless approved by said Committee, or by the Grand Lodge; and all By-Laws submitted for approval shall be written or printed in full, as intended to appear when in force.

Keep This in Sight.

Odd Fellowship is no longer an experiment in this country. It has passed through the trial state and become a permanent institution. It will endure when other institutions, of greater pretension, shall have passed away and been forgotten. Its history, varied and interesting in many respects, is a history of long-continued struggles against the fears and prejudices of those who knew little of its true character and legitimate purposes. The fierce warfare which, at times, has been waged against our Order, has been carried on chiefly by men who could not appreciate the generous motives that warm and strengthen the heart of the true Odd Fellow as he goes forth in the discharge of his duties. But the contest is now at an end. "Friendship, Love and Truth" have, at length triumphed in a most signal manner. The bitterest enemies have gradually relaxed their opposition, and now freely admit that Odd Fellowship is fulfilling a mission in the world which no other institution has uccessfully att empted. Its friends and votaries multiply on every hand. Its praises are daily in the mouths and hearts of thousands who have experienced its cordial sympathies, and felt in a substantial manner the joy that comes to the stricken soul when the liberal hand is opened to relieve its urgent wants.

Odd Fellowship aims to give relief, awaken sympathy, and afford protection, as far as may be, against the ills of life. These are its more prominent features; but incidentally it aids much in the cultivation and improvement of our social and religious natures. In a world where accidents, misfortunes and sickness are liable to come at any moment, men often suffer for the necessaries and comforts of life. The charity of the world is bestowed pinchingly and grudgingly. Avarice and selfishness prompt those who are under their baneful influence to close their eyes against scenes of suffering, and to stop their ears and steel their hearts against the most touching appeals of sympathy. Such men live only for themselves. They never aid the needy, weep with those who drink the cup of affliction, nor extend a hand to protect the innocent and feeble. Hence, it may be said that Odd Fellowship, has its origin in the wants of the race, and comes like a ministering spirit to succor the needy, cheer the desponding, and protect the helpless. Its aims and objects are high and praiseworthy. The institution, from its very nature, commends itself to the good and the true in every age and clime. Those who know it best love it most. Its pure principles become a part of their very being. They cherish its virtues as the apple of the eye; and find a sweeter satisfaction, a purer pleasure, in visiting the sick, relieving the distressed, burying the dead, and educting the orphan, then they would in sitting on Fame's highest pinnacle and listening to the plaudits of an admiring world. In the discharge of these great duties, let us be vigilant and zealous, always remembering that he who endures to the end wears the brightest crown.

1.—When any communication, petition, or memorial is presented by a member of this Lodge, before it is read or any vote taken upon it, a brief statement of its contents shall be made by the introducer or the N. G.; and after it has been read, a brief notice of its purport shall be entered on the minutes.

2.—No motion shall be subject to action, until seconded, and stated by the Chair; at the desire of any brother, it shall be reduced to writing.

3.—After a motion is stated by the N. G., it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Lodge, but may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment.

4.—When a blank is to be filled, the question shall be first taken on the highest sum or number, and the longest time proposed.

5.—Any member may call for the division of a question, when the sense will admit of it.

6.—When a question is before the Lodge, no motion shall be received, unless to close the Lodge; the previous question; to lay on the table; to postpone; to refer; or to amend; and these shall have precedence in the order herein arranged, and the first two shall be decided without debate.

7.—When a question has been decided by the Lodge, in which two-thirds of the members present are necessary to carry the affirmative, a motion for reconsideration shall be decided by a majority of votes.

8.—After a question has been decided, any two members who voted in the majority may, at the same or next meeting, move for a reconsideration thereof.

9.—The previous question can be called for by two members, and shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" If carried, the vote shall be taken first on any amendments that may be pending, and next on the final question.

10.—When one-fifth of the members rise, in favor of taking a question by yeas and nays, they shall be so recorded.

11.—All questions, unless otherwise fixed by law, shall be determined by a majority of votes.

12.—All questions of order, not provided for by these rules, must be determined by vote of the Lodge.

It is particularly enjoined that members of this Lodge treat each other with due respect during the sittings; that all discussions be conducted in a spirit of candor, moderation, and open generosity, and that all personal allusions, and sarcastic language by which the feelings of a brother may be injured, be carefully avoided, that in concord and good fellowship we may cherish and preserve the most prominent objects of our Order—Friendship, Charity, and Harmony.
